

Dear Diana Rodica MINTEOAN

We have issued you a Bridging A visa while your Student (subclass 500) application is being processed.

Application status

New Student (subclass 500) application:	Received
Current Student (Temporary) visa:	Active
Bridging A visa:	Not active

When will my Bridging visa become active?

This Bridging A visa will only become active if your current visa ends before your new application has been finalised. This Bridging visa allows you to stay lawfully in Australia while your Student (subclass 500) application is being processed.

Bridging A visa conditions

8104 - Work limitation

An explanation of each condition of this Bridging A visa is included below.

You can check the conditions of your Bridging visa at any time by using the Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) service. The four-digit number presented next to each condition above is used in VEVO to identify each condition that applies to this Bridging A visa.

Planning to travel?

This Bridging visa will end if you leave Australia.

If you plan to leave Australia while on a Bridging visa, you will need to apply for a Bridging visa B (BVB): www.homeaffairs.gov.au/BVB

You will need to be granted a Bridging visa B before you depart Australia. A Bridging visa B allows you to leave and return to Australia while your Student (subclass 500) application is being processed.

When does my Bridging visa end?

If your application is granted, your Bridging visa will end and your new visa will become active.

If your application is invalid, refused, withdrawn or has an outcome from a merits review decision, your Bridging visa will end after a specified period of time. To understand more about when a bridging visa ends, refer to www.homeaffairs.gov.au/bridging-visas

Bridging A visa conditions

8104 – Work limitation

- (1) The holder must not engage in work for more than 40 hours a fortnight while the holder is in Australia.
 - (2) Subject to subclauses (2A) and (2B), if the holder is a member of the family unit of a person who satisfies the primary criteria for the grant of a student visa, the holder must not engage in work in Australia until the person who satisfies the primary criteria has commenced a course of study.
 - (2A) Subclause (2) does not apply to the holder if:
 - (a) at the time of applying for the visa, the holder held a substantive visa or a bridging visa (the previous visa); and
 - (b) the holder was permitted to work in Australia during the period that the previous visa was in effect.
 - (2B) Subclause (2) does not apply to the holder if the person who satisfies the primary criteria for the grant of the student visa:
 - (a) held a substantive visa or a bridging visa (the previous visa) at the time of applying for the student visa; and
 - (b) was permitted to work in Australia during the period that the previous visa was in effect.
 - (2C) If subclause (2) does not apply to the holder because of subclause (2A) or (2B), then despite subclause (1), the holder may engage in work for more than 40 hours per fortnight:
 - (a) while the holder is in Australia; and
 - (b) before the study mentioned in subclause (2) commences.
 - (3) If the course of study mentioned in subclause (2) is for the award of a masters or doctoral degree, then despite subclause (1), the holder may engage in work for more than 40 hours a fortnight while the holder is in Australia.
 - (4) In this clause:

fortnight means the period of 14 days commencing on a Monday.
